

IT Security Policy

All employees must use multi-factor authentication for corporate accounts. Laptops must have full-disk encryption enabled. Do not store customer data on personal devices. Report suspected phishing to security@corp.com immediately. Password managers are provided to all staff and are mandatory for shared credentials.